Membership Categories:

Regular Members - Any enlisted person, retired from an active or reserve component of the Armed Forces, either for length of service or permanent medical disability shall be eligible for regular membership. A retired member advanced to commissioned or Warrant Officer status, either through recall to active duty or on the retired list shall remain eligible for regular membership as long as his/her dues are kept current. Active duty, Reserve and National Guard enlisted personnel with 10 or more years retirement creditable service shall also be eligible, but membership (including life membership) shall be withdrawn if the person fails to retire from the Armed Forces. The term "regular member" encompasses both charter and life members of TREA.

Associate Members - Surviving spouses of deceased members or non-members who were eligible for membership at the time of their death, are eligible to join The Retired Enlisted Association as associate members. Associate members are not eligible for life membership. Associate members shall enjoy the privileges of regular membership, except the right to make motions, vote, or hold office.
